Overview

Dharamsala is a hill side city in the Indian state of Himachal Pradesh. The winters in Dharamsala stretches from September to February which is quite cold and the temperature in Winters remains between 4 and 7 degrees Celsius. Snowfall begins by the end of December and continues until February.

There are several poor Tibetans who couldn't survive heavy winter in Dharamsala due poor financial conditions. Some are hermit monks too who live in higher alps of Dharamsala hills and meditate whole year. These people lack basic necessities in their day to day life.

WINTER CLOTHES, BLANKETS AND RATION FOR POOR

As winter sets in by November end, every year Tibet Charity distribute winter blankets, warm clothes and food rations to many poor people on streets, poor Tibetan elderlies and also to hermit monks and nuns around Mcleodganj and Dharamsala area. This is all done with a great support of our sponsors who donate money to help this people to survive the harsh winter in Dharamsala.

This year too, we are again planning to do the same. We plan to distribute winter warm clothes and food rations to 75 poor Tibetan elderlies and hermit monks who live in higher regions of Dharamsala hills. Due to poor health conditions and distant locations, they are unable to go out and get basic necessities in winters. Therefore, we plan to give food rations at their doorstep so that they can survive the harsh winter without leaving their homes.

BI-FURCATION OF BENEFICIARIES

HERMIT MONKS

We plan to give winter warm clothes and food rations to 36 hermit monks and nuns who are residing in higher reaches of Dharamsala hills.

POOR TIBETAN ELDERLIES

We plan to give winter warm clothes and food rations to 39 poor Tibetan Elderlies who are residing in Mcleodganj and Mid Town of Dharamsala region.

EXPECTED COST AND TOTAL BUDGET

A) Food ration cost - Rs 1500/- per head (minimum)

B) Winter clothes and Blankets - Rs 1800/- per head (minimum)
